Alma Mater

Where Monessen Highway wanders
True to nature's call,
There in stately grace and beauty
Stands Rostraver's halls.
All thy halls the day in dying
Crowns with golden light,
And the morn with waking splendor
Greets thee in thy might.
Long may you, our Alma Mater,
Shed your light abroad,
As your many sons and daughters
Live for you and God.

Chorus

Sing her praises, loud resounding,
Speed them on their way;
We'll be true to thee, Rostraver,
True for aye and aye.

1952 Rostravette

Presented By

The Senior Class

of

Rostraver Township High School

Bridge Approach to Rostrevor Village, Ireland.

Dedication

To the picturesque little village Rostrevor in the heart of the Emerald Isle, we dedicate the 1952 Rostravette.

Its wooded beauty, clear mountain streams, and impressive mountains give the enchanting spot the best of nature's backgrounds.

Here our own Rostraver originated. Here also lives a lively little band of Leprechauns who govern the people's daily work.

To all this from the magic of Fairy Glen down to the last green shamrock, we wish to offer this humble dedication in thanks for our "Rostraver."

Senior Class Sponsors

MRS. DANTI MR. MATTEE

Early in the year the Seniors met to choose their sponsors. Mrs. Danti and Mr. Mattee were selected. They have proved to be untiring and of dauntless good nature under the burden of directing our activities. We owe many thanks to our capable sponsors. Their helpful suggestions and capable guidance solved many problems for the Rostravette.

Seated—H. Bush, J. Deter, Marian Driscoll, S. Weightman.

These are the men who deserve "thanks" from us. They have made possible many of the facilities and privileges that we have at Rostraver. We are grateful to these men whose vision, kindness, and consideration have never failed us.

THE SUPERINTENDENT

E. F. CARTER

Here is the man who carries the load of responsibility for Rostraver. He is to be remembered as an admirable and friendly person who was always willing to help anyone who needed it. Mr. Carter is an inspiration to all students by his conscientious hard work in their behalf.

THE PRINCIPAL

FRED F. HERMAN

We think that three words are sufficient to describe Mr. Herman. These words are: good, both as an administrator and as a personality; intelligent, and kindly, which are best proven by the admiration the students have for him.

DB

THE ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

HARRY R. FLEMING

Here is a capable leader, a true friend of the Class of 1952 and of every class that has been at Rostraver. We shall long remember him and cherish his friendship.

The Evaluation Committee

SEATED—Mr. Frank L. Stewart, Sister M. Victor, Mrs. Margaret Seamens, Miss Madeline C. Hershey, Miss Emma E. Christian, Miss Ruth Meighen

STANDING—Mr. James R. Braden, Dr. John S. Mc Isaac, Mr. Elmer Puchta, Mr. Donald E. Grove, Mr. Jesse J. Ritenour, Mr. Samuel Cirota

The evaluating committee of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools completed their work at Rostraver on Friday, November 16.

The primary purpose of the evaluation was the improvement of Rostraver High School in the service it is rendering to the youths of the township.

Miss Emma E. Christian, chairman of the committee, in her oral report to the faculty, complimented the school for initiating various programs of study, the preparation and ability of the professional staff, the teacher-pupil relationship, the student body on its enthusiasm and sincere loyalty, the well conducted drill and assembly program, the Board of Education for the evidences of their public spirited interest in the improvement of the school, and the superintendent on his broad grasp of modern educational principles.

The high school faculty had been preparing for the evaluation for the past twelve months. Their time was used in checking and rechecking two thousand items that appear in the evaluative criteria, which is divided into thirteen areas. The work was done to benefit the present and future students of Rostraver. If Rostraver passes the evaluation, it will be an accredited school. If not, we will know what improvements are necessary to come up to standard.

In the final report both commendations and recommendations appear to fall into three classifications.

1. Things which can be done immediately to make an improvement.
2. Some that require a longer period of time and finances to accomplish.
3. Others not adaptable to local conditions at the present time.

Juniors

The class of '53 met in September and elected Mrs. Winnett and Miss Luzanski as their sponsors.

Among the shining hours of the junior year are many episodes which made high school life a series of happy memories.

Shortly after school started, rings were purchased from L. G. Balfour Company. To increase funds, a three act comedy, "Half Past Teen," by John Henderson, was selected and presented in the school auditorium on January 10. The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held at Lebanon School on May 6. The ladies from Fells Church served, and the Bafile Trio furnished dinner music.

The climax of the 52-53 term was the annual Junior-Senior Prom which featured Brad Hunt and his famous orchestra. It was lots of work—but oh, what fun!

This was a glorious year. But "just wait until we're seniors" was the cry of every junior. As you know, the seniors vacated a large pair of shoes—thank goodness the juniors have big feet.

This group of sturdy young co-workers met in October to organize as a class, elect officers, and selected Mrs. Wood and Mr. Brady as faculty advisers. Under the guidance of these efficient leaders the first social function was a Valentine party held in the high school gym on February 13. The usual party games, refreshments, and dancing, accompanied with fun and laughter, made the evening a gala affair. This gay occasion will go down as the class of '54's first big success.

The noise floating through the air during band rehearsals may not sound like much at times, but everyone will agree that our band has given a fine showing under the capable supervision of our new director, Mr. Charles Del Rosso.

The big event was the annual spring band concert held on April 25. The concert was a big success and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those who attended.

Some of the activities sponsored by the band were: a spaghetti supper, a dance, and a skating party. The annual banquet honoring the graduating members closed the band's successful year.

HI-STEPPERS CLUB

The majorette corps was organized last year as a club with Miss Kane as our sponsor. The Revealer, our school newspaper, was our main project. To have the Revealer printed this year proved quite expensive, but the Thanksgiving and Mardi Gras dances made this improvement possible. The co-editors of the newspaper are Shirley Waiton and Gloria Dayner. The officers of the club are: President, Shirley Waiton and Secretary-Treasurer, Marlene Bailey.

The Future Homemakers of America, under the leadership of Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Finley, face the future with warm courage and high hope. This is the sixth year that the club has been organized. The club is open to any 10th, 11th, or 12th grade girl who has completed one semester of home economics.

Honors were brought to the organization when Thelma Naylor rated first in the County Apple Pan Dowdie Contest.

The outstanding project of the club this year was the Christmas party entertaining twelve needy youngsters from one of our grade schools. Santa Claus (Mr. Weir) presented each youngster with several needed and useful presents.

F. F. A.

This year the F. F. A. has made many improvements in the agriculture shop. Under the supervision of Mr. Cocain and "Sweet Eloise" (the Stick) the thirty-two members have managed to renovate and enlarge their work space.

The group has bi-monthly meetings and attends such activities as field trips to farms and livestock sales.

Skating parties and the sale of Leopard stickers help finance the club.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is an organization of students who have completed or are taking the two year Latin course. Its purpose is to give the students a broader understanding of Roman civilization and culture and to show its influences on modern civilization. Meetings are held once each month during which a program is presented.

On Thursday, February 21, the club attended the Latin Festival at the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh. There were 68 who attended, and the trip was made by chartered bus. To make this trip possible the members sold Christmas candy.

In March the club had a banquet at Johnson's in Monessen. A most interesting program was presented and a special tribute was given to our seniors who have been members of the Latin Club for three years.

COACHES

Coach ..... James Weir
Assistant Coach ..... Clifford Naylor

The 1951 football season here at Rostraver did not feature a spectacular team as a whole, but under the able coaching of Mr. Weir and Mr. Naylor our boys played their hearts out in every game. The highlight of the season was the South Huntingdon game, which we won 7-6. The temperature was low but spirits were high as Keller gathered a pass from Quinn for the winning point.

In spite of the fact that the Green and White eleven did not carry off any championship honors in the 1951 season, Rostraver's fans still have cause to be proud, because their team is known for its grand sportsmanship and fair play. The boys—win, lose, or draw—were first, last, and always sportsmen.

Coach George Brady had a difficult job in rebuilding his squad for the 1951-52 cage season as he had only one holdover from last year's team, R. Quinto. Around him and with the aid of several reserves from last season, he succeeded in rebuilding a quintet which made a creditable showing. Although the boys lacked some of the qualities necessary for a championship team, they made up for this in spirit and the will-to-win.

Playing their final game for the Green and White were, R. Nedrow, W. Sickles, C. Glass, and R. Keller.

"THE ADORABLE IMP"
by Jay Tobias

Junior Play

"HALF PAST TEEN"

by John Henderson

The story of the play centered around Candy Norton (Peggy Poole) and her widowed mother (Barbara Lambie), Sugar (Marlene Bailey), Candy's best friend, and Lloyd (George Schivley), Candy's best boy-friend who became involved in a plot to have Candy win a scholarship contest. With their help Lois Midgely (Suzie Allen) and David Van Van (Joseph Walker), the town snob, received their just rewards. Miss Blackwell (Dolores Nogy) Candy's teacher, had an "about face." Great humor was added when Aunt Augusta (Mabel Kopp) and her allergic daughter, Griselda (Jo Ann Clark) arrived. To complete the humorous plot Sam Bullet (Edwin Smock) and "his podner" Galsworthy (Warren Boyd) appeared from the West bringing to light the falseness Mr. Midgely (E. F. Carter).

Seated: Dolores Nogy, Joseph Walker, Suzie Allen, George Schivley, Warren Boyd, Jo Ann Clark, E. F. Carter, Edwin Smock, Marlene Bailey, Peggy Poole.
Standing: Mabel Kopp, Barbara Lambie, Mrs. Winnett.
